

Lesson 56

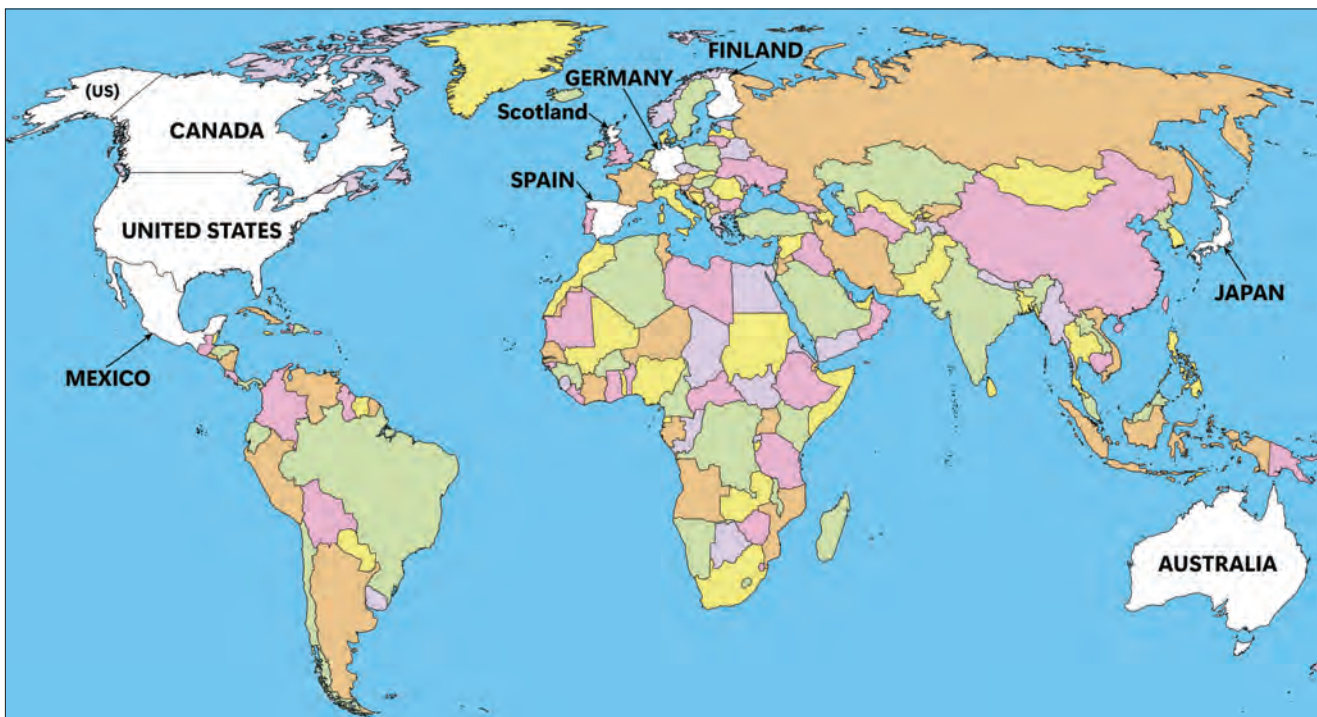

Panda Diplomacy

China has sent pandas to each of the countries listed below (plus others!). Find the countries on the map and color them the colors of your choice. (We have colored the Canadian islands purple, so use purple for the mainland of Canada. Scotland is part of the United Kingdom. We have colored the rest of the UK pink on the map and left Scotland white for you to color.)

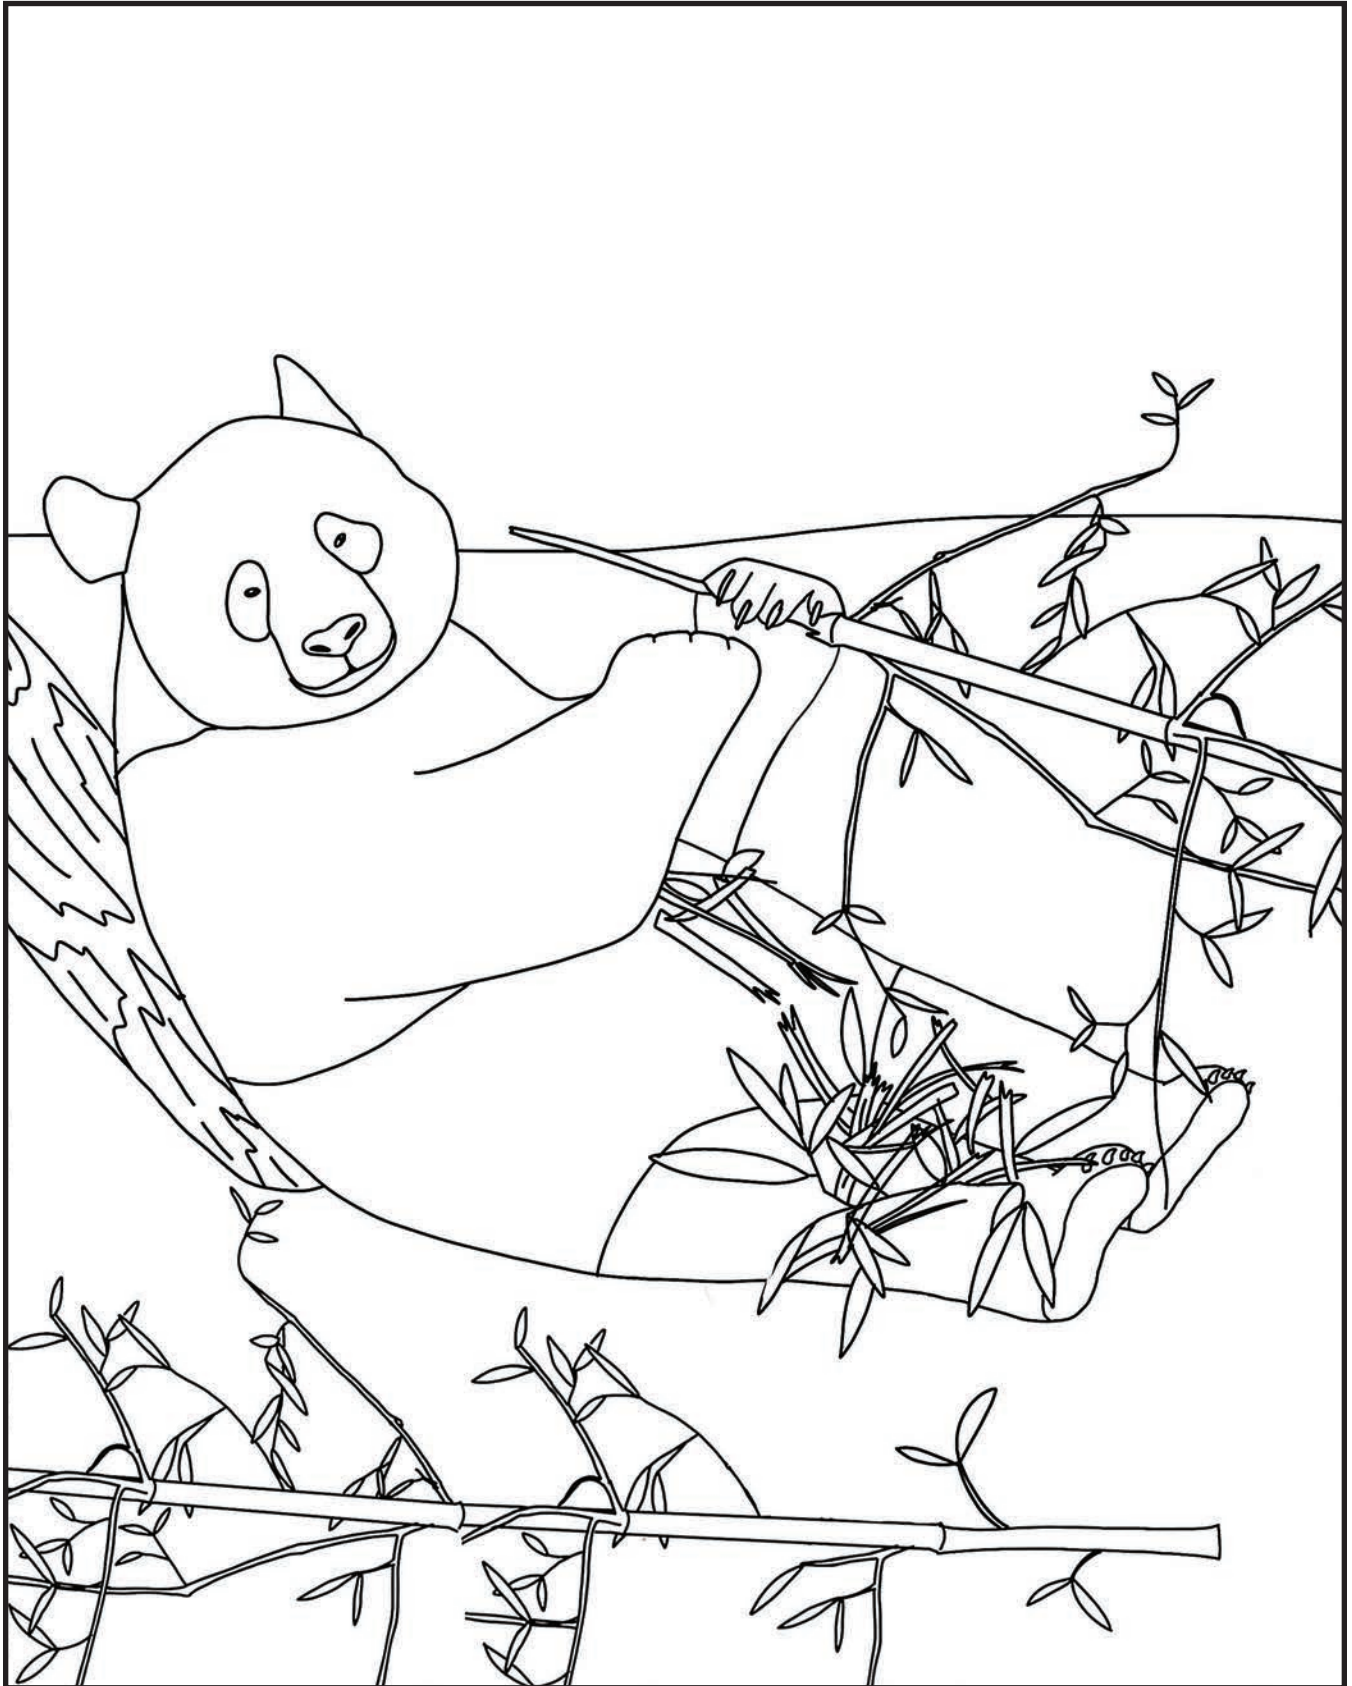

Australia
Canada
Finland
Germany
Japan
Mexico
United States
Scotland
Spain

Panda at a zoo in Canada

Lesson 56

This giant panda is chowing down on some green bamboo. Color his ears and eye patches black.
Color his legs, arms, and the band around his chest black also.

Lesson 55

1. Lü Xiao Min was born in the country of _____ .
2. What happened that kept Xiao Min's parents from giving her away?
 - a. flood
 - b. earthquake
 - c. hurricane
3. Who first taught Xiao Min about God?
 - a. a schoolteacher
 - b. her aunt
 - c. a minister
4. What did Xiao Min begin to write after she became a Christian?
 - a. chapter books
 - b. skits
 - c. songs
5. How many has she written?
 - a. about 20
 - b. almost 200
 - c. over 2,000

Lesson 56

1. The country of _____ uses panda diplomacy.
2. Which word has to do with keeping things peaceful between countries?
 - a. taxation
 - b. dividends
 - c. diplomacy
3. After China became a communist country, did the relationship between China and the United States stay friendly?
 - a. yes
 - b. no
4. What U.S. president traveled to China in 1972 on a diplomatic visit?
 - a. Abraham Lincoln
 - b. Richard Nixon
 - c. Joe Biden
5. Ling-Ling and Hsing-Hsing were pandas that lived in the zoo in what city?
 - a. Chicago
 - b. Dallas
 - c. Washington, D.C.